

Walkies of fame for star Pudsey

IT'S next stop Hollywood for Britain's Got Talent winner Pudsey, after the dancing dog made his 'bow wow' on the red carpet at the premiere of his movie. He was joined by owner Ashleigh Butler and BGT judge David Walliams at the Pudsey The Dog: The Movie, launch in Leicester Square. Walliams, 42, who voices Pudsey, said: 'The public are going to love it.' Also on the red carpet was former Brookside star Claire Sweeney, 43, who showed off her baby bump against Kim Kardashian's advice (see story above).

Good to glow: Claire Sweeney shows off her baby bump at the Pudsey The Dog: The Movie premiere, and inset, Pudsey with owner Ashleigh Butler and BGT judge David Walliams

PICTURES: PA

Lizards on line slow rail work

COMMUTERS are used to leaves and the 'wrong type' of snow or rain delaying journeys.

But work on Cambridge's new £30million Science Park station is being held up by lizards on the line. It can't go ahead until the reptiles are removed.