

SOAP DIARY

This week's soaps at a glance

There are gasps when Sharon's dad turns up

EASTENDERS

Sharon brings her dad home to Walford

» We always expected Sharon's biological father to be blonde and tanned – a cross between Paul Nicholas and Dale Winton, perhaps.

So the fella she introduces to 'the faarmly' as her long-lost dad comes as quite a shock. He looks like a Hairy Biker!

Shazbang hasn't banked on a reunion just yet but Phil gives her the bloke's details after they've had a row. He's earlier admitted that Vincent now owns The Albert. To add insult to injury, Shazza's then discovered that her 'loving husband' forged her signature on the contract.

Before you can say 'Easy Rider', Phil's driving his missus to the fella's house. He's called Gordon, but Sharon panics when she sees him for the first time, and asks to be driven home.

Later, she returns to Gordon's gaff alone, introduces herself as his daughter, and brings him back home. Will he be sticking around?

» PLUS Paul Coker arrives in Walford and catches Les with Claudette, Cindy does a U-turn on Beth's adoption and gives Ian and Jane an ultimatum, and Jay threatens to tell Abi that Ben is still after men.