

Gary Delaney

Gary was extremely well prepared he'd obviously read the script they sent him, he arrived early and was great to work with. He asked for information on some staff members in the audience. The event really came together well because of him, the audience interaction worked well and he had a brilliant connection with the audience. They felt he was hilarious, very quick and is a very funny guy. They loved him. - Debra Hitchins from Karl Storz

Gary hosted our Awards Dinner with his own unique blend of humour and wit which our guests very much enjoyed. Thanks, Gary, for a fabulous evening. - Sue Dormer, Marketing Director, the Association of Gas Safety Managers

Gary was absolutely fantastic! Everyone but everyone loved his performance. Not only that, what a lovely man. - James Blandy, British Legion
