

1GM

Thursday, January 21, 2016 Sun 3

NTA
NATIONAL TELEVISION AWARDS

STARS FANCY DRESSED

NTA
NATIONAL TELEVISION AWARDS

AMANDA HOLDEN

Thighful... the BGT judge must have left the rest of her dress — and her smile — at home

JORGIE PORTER

VICKY PATTISON

Snow queen... I'm A Celebrity winner Vicky looked sexy in this white cut-out dress

ALESHA DIXON

The wrong trousers... chiffon flares and blazer — it's a no from us for BGT's Alesha

CAROLINE FLACK

Black and white... the X Factor host looked like a waitress in her Red Valentino shift dress

Wor in

TESS DA

Leggy... the Strictly host walked like an Egyptian in this odd Amanda Wakeley dress

MICHELLE KEEGAN

Curtain call... the Ordinary Lies star wore what looked like her nan's drapes

Pants... actress and I'm a Celeb star Jorgie turned heads in this knicker-flashing number

the oven

TWO AWARDS FOR PREGNANT TV STAR

PREGNANT Doctor Foster star Suranne Jones told of her baby delight last night, after bagging two TV gongs.

By JEN PHARO
TV Features Editor

The actress, 37, won top drama performance for the hit show at the National TV Awards. The BBC series was also crowned best new drama. The show - which saw her character Doctor Gemma Foster turn detective to uncover her husband's two-year affair - beat favourites Poldark, Ordinary Lies and Humans. Suranne, who married husband Laurence Akers in August 2014, was overjoyed as she pointed at her telling baby bump and said: "I'm pregnant." But the ex-Corrie star warned that having her first child means that fans must wait for series two. Suranne added: "Thank you for voting for us, we start filming in September so we look forward to you seeing that." Meanwhile I'm A Celeb duo Ant and Dec scooped their 15th NTA presenting gong in a row. EastEnders beat Corrie, Emmerdale and Hollyoaks to be named top soap. jen.pharo@the-sun.co.uk

Bump-er prize... double winner Suranne last night

SEE tvbiz FOR ALL THE WINNERS

PAGE 37