Mix the dark surreal characters from The League of Gentlemen with the Saturday night silliness of Ant & Dec and you'll find yourselves in the weird and wonderful world of Checkley Bush.

In 2009 the sketch duo exploded onto the comedy circuit. Performing to sell out crowds at: The Comedy Store, Leicester Square Theatre, The Canal Cafe, Camden Festival, Hen and Chickens, Gilded Balloon, Voodoo Rooms Edinburgh, The Komedia Brighton and The Soho Theatre.

Their monthly residency Checkley Bush's Comedy Riot at Leicester Square Theatre has become one of the best comedy nights on the circuit. Giving their audience an eclectic mix of musical comedy, sketch and stand up and if that wasn't enough, they also have a raffle. Past guests include Tom Allen, Sara Pascoe, Totally Tom and Colin Hault.

In 2011 the girls reached the Final of The Funny Women Awards and have since gone from strength to strength. Headlining at one of the biggest women's festivals in the world The GoGo Festival, hosting at The Funny Women Awards & performing at the prestigious Latitude Festival. And this year's Edinburgh proved another success earning four & Five star reviews as well as being named "Top three Sketch Acts to see" by Three Weeks magazine. The girls are in the process of writing and developing treatments for Television production companies.
