

➤ It's been a long time coming, but Michael finally learns the awful truth about the man he believes to be his son in Corrie. Susan sends him a photo album documenting Gavin's life and the penny drops that Andy isn't the same person! To make matters worse, Gail is forced to admit the real Gavin is dead which, understandably, sends him reeling.

Over in EastEnders, Sharon plucks up the courage to visit her biological father, Gordon, and takes him back to Walford. Also in the Square, Les and Pam are delighted when their grandson Paul turns up out of the blue.

In Neighbours, Paul decides not to follow up a lead on his daughter, Amy, but we sense a reunion is on the horizon anyway!
