NEW DISGRACE

Just-skin Bieber's maracas out again

By RICHARD WHITE

JUSTIN Bieber was thrown out of a Mexican archaeological site for climbing on off-limits ruins and pulling down his underpants.

The pop heart-throb, who has a history of stripping off in public, allegedly bared his backside so his entourage could take a picture at the historic Mayan fortress of Tulum.

It came after he walked into a roped-off section and clambered up part of the delicate structure.

Cops were called after Bieber's bodyguards confronted local security, according to director of the National Institute of Anthropology and History (INAH) Adriana Velazquez.

But Bieber, 21, left the park after an hour without police action.

Local reports said the singer was "under the effects of alcohol" and had been asked to bin a beer he was carrying before entering the fortress.

La Razon newspaper reported: "On

Fort-less . . . as Bieber could have looked the first structure he pulled his underpants down, leading to INAH personnel asking him to leave the area without concluding his visit."

The 13th-century Tulum, famed for its Mayan architecture, is among Mexico's most visited tourist sites.

CANADIAN Bieber has made chart history by becoming the first artist to occupy the entire UK Top 3.

His single Love Yourself was at No1 yesterday, with Sorry and What Do You Mean? at No2 and No3.
