NHS choir to perform with Tinie at FA Cup Final

Yesterday we told you Tinie Tempah will be performing at this weekend's FA Cup Final at Wembley, and today the Lewisham and Greenwich NHS Choir have been added to the line-up.

The choir - who famously beat Justin Bieber to Christmas number one - will perform pre-kick off hymn Abide With Me ahead of Saturday's match between Manchester United and Crystal Palace.

Members of the choir will also be collaborating on a top secret performance with Tinie.

The choir's coordinator Caroline Smith, a child physiotherapist, said they were "thrilled to be performing such an emotional song at such a prestigious event."

She said: "Abide With Me really stirs the crowd, not only in the stadium of course but the millions watching on TV around the world. It's been linked to the F.A Cup Final for many years and we follow a list of very talented people who have been given this rare privilege".
