The four-legged star, who won Britain's Got Talent with owner Ashleigh Butler two years ago, will also feature on greetings cards and gifts under the deal with the firm Carte Blanche, which has created Moshi Monsters spin-offs.

The much-loved animal can currently be seen in his film debut, Pudsey The Dog: The Movie, which was released in cinemas last week.

Ashleigh said: "I'm thrilled at the prospect of Pudsey coming to life in a range of consumer products. Pudsey and I share a very special relationship and it's lovely to know that other people will now get to know the lovable, cheeky character that plays such an important part in my life."

Jonathan Shalit, Pudsey's manager, said: "Tom Cruise and Brad Pitt have never had their names in the title of

Horoscopes

Your Horoscopes by Russell Grant

Leo: You feel optimistic and for good reason. An admirer has been trying to win your heart. All this attention is flattering. If you're single, keep playing hard to get. The more you resist, the more they'll persist. Are you already in a relationship? Start pursuing a cherished dream. Fulfilling your heart's desire will make you a better partner and friend. Dwelling on what might have been will just make you bitter. Take a risk. It's better to try and fail than be paralysed by fear. MORE ▶
