

COLLABRO TO EMBARK ON 2016 UK TOUR!

From Britain's got Talent to a sell-out UK tour in 2015, musical theatre vocal group Collabro have delighted audiences across the world. Both a UK and international hit, they're about to embark on another tour of the UK, starting with a date at the Floral Pavilion, New Brighton!

The five piece group won over judges at their Britain's got Talent audition in 2014, winning the competition and a prized place at the Royal Variety Show. Their debut album charted at number one, while their second album Act Two has added to their status as Platinum selling artists. With talent such as this, there's no stopping this incredible group as they bring their latest tour to venues across the country.

Opening at the Floral Pavillion New Brighton on 23rd February 2016, Merseyside fans will even have another chance to see this wonderful group of musicians and performers again at the Liverpool Philharmonic Hall on 8th March!

Get ready for a night to remember with the Collabro UK tour, coming to a venue near you this Spring!

The Collabro UK tour will be at:

Floral Pavillion, New Brighton – 23rd February 2016

Liverpool Philharmonic Hall – 8th March 2016
