Event Details

Collabro, the World's number one musical theatre vocal group who performed to over 55,000 people on their sell out UK tour earlier this year, has announced a new tour for 2016! Since winning last year's Britain's Got Talent, Collabro's diary has been a whirlwind of touring and promotion on a Worldwide scale! The new tour includes 29 dates across the UK, starting in the Wirral at New Brighton's Floral Pavilion taking in a date at London's Royal Albert Hall on 26th March and then culminating on 3rd April at Guildford's G Live.

The five-piece swept to victory on the ITV's Britain's Got Talent in June 2014 winning a £250,000 cash prize as well as a much-coveted slot on The Royal Variety Show. They signed with Simon Cowell's Syco Music & their career has gone from strength to strength here in the UK & Internationally.

They released their debut album 'Stars' which smashed in to the No.1 spot beating Ed Sheeran in the process and at the time being the fastest selling album for a debut act. A Christmas released special edition of 'Stars' followed to further their domination of the charts. A sell out 32-date UK tour at the beginning of year saw the band play in prestigious venues such as The London Palladium.

In June 2015 their second album 'Act Two' was released, charting at No.2 beaten only by Florence & The Machine. In just one year the band have gone from being completely unknown to selling over 300,000 albums, making them platinum album recording artists!

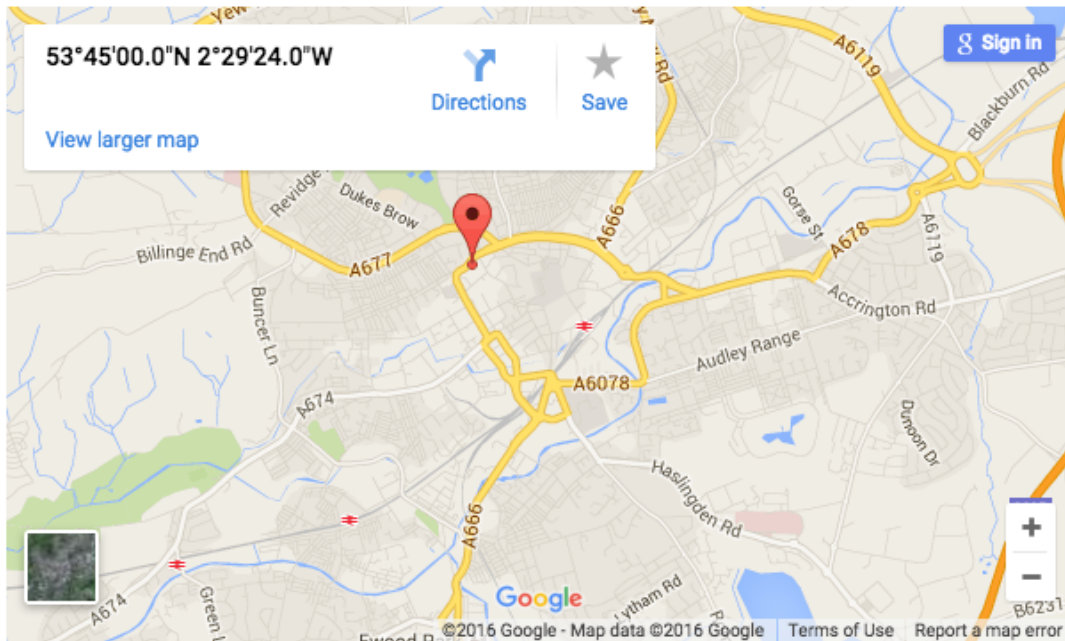

COLLABRO are Michael Auger, Richard Hadfield, Jamie Lambert, Matt Pagan and Thomas Redgrave who first got together upstairs of a north London pub, having met through mutual friends and social media.

Less than five months after meeting for the first time, Collabro won Britain's Got Talent and the rest, as they say, is history.

Their first audition at the Hammersmith Apollo saw a standing ovation from all four judges: Simon Cowell, Amanda Holden, Alesha Dixon and David Walliams. From that day on, they never performed without receiving a standing ovation. Simon even stood up again when Collabro performed at Simon Cowell's private birthday party!
