THIS week's highest new entry is NATALIE LA ROSE with debut single Somebody. But she doesn't quite dethrone JASON DERULO, who spends his second week at No1 with Want To Want Me.

NO one stood a chance against FLORENCE + THE MACHINE this week. How Big How Blue How Beautiful spent the whole week out-selling the rest of the Top Five combined.

COLLABRO have to settle for No2 this week. But no doubt the lads will be thrilled to have outsold the likes of JASON DERULO, whose album Everything Is 4 hits No16.

replacing former Spice Girl MEL B in The X Factor judging line-up. Fellow stars have backed the move. PIXIE LOTT said "She would be great. Rita's got experience now from doing The Voice and knows how those shows run. She seems very strong and inspirational. Girls can look up to people like Rita." Pixie was at Frankie and Benny's Rays of Sunshine concert at the Royal Albert Hall in London as was CONOR MAYNARD. He said of Rita: "I think she'll be great on The X Factor. She was really good on The Voice." I understand no contracts have been signed but a source told me last night: "Syco and Simon are chomping at the bit to get Rita. "Although she was a Voice UK judge this year she started off by appearing as a guest judge on X Factor in 2012, so they feel she has stronger links to their show. "She's also great pals with the other likely fourth judge, Radio 1's NICK GRIMSHAW."
