A DELIVERY driver planned to carry out a knife and bomb attack on an American serviceman in the UK, a court has heard.

Junead Ahmed Khan, 24, is believed to have secretly monitored the US air bases at RAF Mildenhall and RAF Lakenheath, both in Suffolk, while at work.

He is also facing separate terrorism charges, along with Shazib Khan, who also appeared in court, of planning to travel to Syria to join Isil.

Mark Dawson, prosecuting, said: "Shazib Khan is charged under section 75 of the Terrorism Act preparing for travel to Syria to join Islamic State, possibly for martyrdom purposes.

"In relation to Junead Khan, the charge is the same, potentially not for martyrdom purposes."

On the separate charge against Junead Khan, Mr Dawson said: "He was planning a car accident-style at-
