

See Pixie and a Lott more stars perform in Trafalgar Square

SEAN EBSWORTH BARNES

Opening this month: Pixie Lott as Holly Golightly in Breakfast At Tiffany's

Robert Dex Arts Correspondent

HALF A MILLION people are expected in Trafalgar Square this weekend for a celebration of some of the West End's biggest shows.

Stage stars including Pixie Lott, Beverley Knight and X Factor winner Matt Cardle will appear alongside cast members from long-running shows including Wicked, Les Misérables and The Phantom Of The Opera. Lott will appear with colleagues from the West End production of the classic film Breakfast At Tiffany's, which opens at the Theatre Royal Haymarket at the end of this month.

Other performers include Michael Xavier who was critically acclaimed for his role as tragic Hollywood writer Joe Gillis, opposite Glenn Close, in the sell-out hit Sunset Boulevard this year. West End Live, now in its 12th year, is jointly organised by Westminster council and Official London Theatre.

West End ONLINE

Stay in touch with all the entertainment gossip
standard.co.uk/westend

Unconventional

model: Georgia May Jagger, photographed for ES Magazine's food issue, insists she is "incredibly uncool". Below, with her friend Cara Delevingne

OFFICIAL SUPERMARKET

OFFICIAL SUPPLIER

