

WHAT'S ON March

BRIT Award winners, comedy stars, classic play adaptations, award-winning musicals and a celebrity chef are all on the entertainment diary for March. CHARLOTTE McINTYRE picks out the highlights

Pixie Lott takes the lead role of Holly Golightly in the stage production of Breakfast at Tiffany's coming to Curve in Leicester.

Of Mice and Men, Theatre Royal, Nottingham, March 1-5

One of the most iconic plays of the 20th century, John Steinbeck's classic tells the story of migrant farm workers George and Lennie who dream of building a home but a series of innocent misunderstandings leads to a shocking climax between two men bound together by friendship.

Starring Dudley Sutton as Candy who is best known for his role in BBC's Lovejoy this classic concludes with a poignant statement that remains long after the curtain falls.

Breakfast at Tiffany's, Curve, Leicester, March 3-12

Truman Capote's classic tale of Holly Golightly memorably portrayed by Audrey Hepburn in the iconic 1961 film has been adapted by Tony and Oliver Award-winning playwright Richard Greenberg.

This stylish production is being given a new lease of life as a stage play in a production starring singer Pixie Lott as Holly but still includes memorable songs from the era.

Catch James Martin at the Royal Concert Hall in Nottingham.

The Jam Movement and The Clashed, O2 Academy, Leicester, March 4

Two of the best tribute acts join forces to bring Leicester a night of riotous entertainment to pay tribute to two iconic groups The Jam and The Clash.

The Clashed and The Jam Movement are fans of the bands and their music as well as performers of it and the great deal of fun they have on stage playing the music by their heroes is extremely infectious.

Both bands are currently playing in venues up and down the country separately and this collaboration looks to be a great night and tribute to The Jam and The Clash.
