PIXIE'S ONESIES FOR THE ROAD

PIXIE LOTT almost hung up her party shoes after a scary moment in a nightclub. She had to make a quick escape when she was targeted by clubbers. 'I got started on by this group of girls in onesie pyjamas,' she said.

'They started going crazy at us and we had to do a runner - my sister fell over while we were jumping into a taxi,' she told Guilty Pleasures ahead of her performance at Hard Rock Cafe London on Tuesday.

Things are going a lot more smoothly with her model beau Oliver Cheshire, 27, - not that he's put a ring on her finger yet.

Asked if she wants to get engaged, Pixie, 24, said: 'There are no plans yet, but we're really happy. He's my first serious boyfriend and we're still going strong.'
