THE Oscars may be just around the corner but it's time for the award they all want to win most – Metro's Celeb Of The Year 2014.

After a storming year, which has seen their fourth album Four dominate the top of the charts around the world, defending champions One Direction will be tough to beat.

But the fab five have formidable competition from comeback queen Cheryl Fernandez-Versini, who is firmly in the running. The 31-year-old has had a great year after marrying again, returning to No.1 in the singles charts and reclaiming her X Factor hot seat.

Or, the award could go to the woman who has been stealing her thunder on the reality show with her scary quips and feisty style – Mel B, 39.

In the music world, S Club 7 excited their fans with a pop comeback, performing on Children In Need.

James Blunt put himself in the running when he left readers in stitches with his brutally harsh advice as Guilty Pleasures' agony aunt.

On the big screen, Benedict Cumberbatch has sparked Oscars fever as Alan Turing in The Imitation Game. The 38-year-old Sherlock actor recently broke hearts when he announced his engagement to girlfriend Sophie Hunter, 36. In the charts, it was the boys doing it for themselves with out 'n' proud Sam Smith, 22, storming the charts in America, while 23-year-old Ed Sheeran booked his first solo Wembley Stadium gig.

In the wardrobe stakes, Victoria Beckham opened her first fashion store in London before the designer, 40, headed to the United Nations to help the fight against Aids among women in Africa.

And in the ballroom 23-year-old pop princess Pixie Lott has had fans in a spin with her dazzling routines.

But only you, loyal GP readers, can decide by casting your vote! The winner will be revealed at a party at Ramusake in London next month.
