Creating a buzz

We're big fans of Bee Good, a natural brand that protects British bees as well as our skin. So we're excited to hear it's just launched Hydrate, Smooth & Prime Serum, £25, which works wonders on all skin types and comes chock-full of skin-loving ingredients. Hydrating honey, antioxidant-rich propolis and firming blackcurrant seed oil plump skin and target fine lines. Make a beeline for it!

Perfect peepers

Pop star Pixie Lott has revealed her top beauty secret – 1-day Acuvue Define contact lenses! The lenses, £45.50 for 30 pairs from acuvue.co.uk, come in either Natural Sparkle for a brightening effect or Natural Shimmer for extra intensity.

"The lenses suit my vision correction needs, but also give my eyes that extra definition thanks to the subtle enhancement – they are definitely one of my must have beauty essentials," says Pixie. "As someone who is constantly having make-up applied and spends the day performing, singing, dancing and in many a meeting, it's so great to find a beauty product that gives me an effortless look, without the effort."

Curl power

Time to ditch those eyelash curlers! The latest mascara from Rimmel, Super Curler, £6.99, promises to give lashes a dramatic curl that lasts for up to 24 hours. Plus, its clever curved wand makes application a doddle, taking you from desk to dancefloor in no time!

Heavenly body

Longing for all-over complexion perfection? Sanctuary's latest launch, Wonder Body, is a brilliant do-it-all body moisturiser that hydrates, illuminates and corrects skintone. The tinted cream, which costs £8 from sanctuary.com, suits all skin types and is set to become our new must-have for sexy selfies.
