

Day & Night

EDITED BY JACK TEAGUE WITH LISA HIGGINS email us at diary@express.co.uk

Pictures: GETTY, XPOSURE

POP star PIXIE LOTT brought her all-singing all-dancing brand of entertainment to Scotland yesterday for the Radio Forth Awards in Edinburgh.

Pixie took to the stage at the Usher Hall to shouts of "Pixie Lott for the Strictly crown," as the BBC show recorded her singing new single Caravan of Love.

The 23-year-old, who is tipped to win the Strictly glitter ball with partner TRENT WHIDDON, said: "It is the Charleston tonight, which is my favourite dance. This is a proper show dance."

Pixie also she was missing fellow contestant JUDY MURRAY after her exit last week – because tennis star ANDY's gran would send in treats for the contestants. She said Judy's mum, SHIRLEY, made shortbread which "would just cheer everyone up". "I don't know what we are going to do without it," she said. "It was the magic that'd keep us going."

Synth pop legends ERASURE opened the Radio Forth awards show with their classic hit A Little Respect before being presented with the Forth Icon Award.

