TOP DOG: Pudsey the dog has put his pawprint to a licensing deal which will see him turned into a cuddly toy. The four-legged star, who won Britain's Got Talent with owner Ashleigh Butler two years ago, will also feature on greetings cards and gifts under the deal with the firm Carte Blanche.

COLE PARTY: She is thought to have had just four guests at her secret wedding – so it is no surprise Cheryl Cole wanted to celebrate her nuptials with a bigger party. The pop star, who married French restaurateur Jean-Bernard Fernandez-Versini, was joined by family and friends at an exclusive London venue.

1D SCREENINGS: One Direction fans will be able to relive the band's world tour with the release of a concert film which is to be screened in cinemas around the world. The show, filmed in Milan, will be seen at more than 10,000 screenings in October.

PERRY PORTRAITS: Portraits of disgraced politician Chris Huhne and former X Factor contestant Rylan Clark will go on display at the National Portrait Gallery. The new portraits of Huhne and Clark are the work of transvestite potter Grayson Perry, who won the Turner Prize in 2003.
