

THE WORLD'S BEST HOWBIZ COLUMN

Showbiz Reporter Of The Year

bizarre

REBECCA'S ROYALLY RATED

REBECCA FERGUSON has received the royal seal of approval.

The singer performed in front of PRINCE WILLIAM and Chinese dignitaries during a VIP dinner in Shanghai.

The former X Factor star sang four tracks from her Lady Sings The Blues album at the bash celebrating the Great British Festival of Creativity and later met Wills, who works out to her song Backtrack.

Lyrics to her songs had to be cleared months in advance by the Chinese Ministry of Culture, who ban any tracks relating to sex or religion. In Rebecca's case, that was quite a few.

