

NEW SHOWS

THE HOTTEST THEATRE OPENINGS THIS WEEK

WEST END

Breakfast at Tiffany's

Pop starlet Pixie Lott plays Holly Golightly in this adaptation of Truman Capote's classic novella.

→ Theatre Royal Haymarket.
⊖ Piccadilly Circus.
Until Sep 17. £15-£98.

The Plough and the Stars

The NT marks the centenary of the Easter Rising with a revival for Sean O'Casey's play, set in a Dublin tenement.

→ National Theatre, Lyttelton.
⊖ Waterloo. Until Oct 22.
£15-£65.

Rotterdam

A West End transfer for Jon Brittain's transgender drama.

→ Trafalgar Studios.
⊖ Charing Cross. Until Aug 27.
£15, £12 concs.

Vamos Cuba!

A joyful salsa spectacular from Cuban choreographer Nilda Guerra, set in the chaos of Havana airport.

→ Sadler's Wells. ⊖ Angel. Until Aug 21. £12-£45.

OFF-WEST END

All or Nothing

Carol Harrison's mod

musical is packed with hits by the Small Faces.
→ The Vaults ⊖ Waterloo.
Until Aug 27. £27.50-£55.

Brer Rabbit's Track & Field

Limber up for Rio with this kids' puppet show, set at the animal Olympics.

→ Chickenshed. ⊖ Cockfosters. Wed 27-Aug 5. £7.

Exposure The Musical: Life Through A Lens

A photographer snaps London's seedier side in this new rock musical.

→ St James Theatre.
⊖ Victoria. Until Aug 27.
£10-£50.

Extra Mac

Eccen
wizar
Thea
melo
Victo
→ Batt
Clapha
Until Au

Mac

A rein
Shake
trage
on the
at its l
→ Hop
Until Au

Tosc

A sus
stagin
classi
Grim
Arco
opera
→ Arco
Junctio
Until Au

EXCLUSIVE

TRAINSPOTTING LIVE

Boys

A sm
of Cit
Thea
→ Bush
Bush M
£15-£2