

yorkshire calendar upcoming events

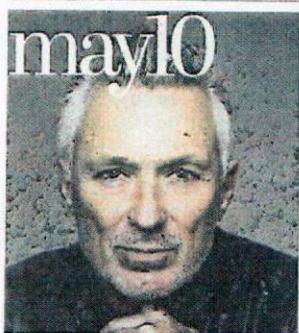

The Sons of Pitches: The winners of Gareth Malone's Naked Choir series will perform at Leeds City Varieties (0113 243 0808, cityvarieties.co.uk). Expect to hear inventive pop covers and original numbers. They also play Sheffield City Hall on June 27.

Breakfast at Tiffany's: Pixie Lott stars in Truman Capote's classic tale of Holly Golightly. The original tale has been given a new lease of life and comes to Leeds Grand Theatre (0844 848 2700, leedsgrandtheatre.com) as part of its UK tour until Apr 11.

Bill Bailey: Following success across Australia and New Zealand, the comedian and musician brings his Limboland tour to the First Direct Arena in Leeds (0844 241 1585, firstdirectarena.com). He also plays York Barbican on May 9.

An Audience with Martin Kemp: With Spandau Ballet reformed, Martin Kemp will be at Harrogate Theatre (01423 502116, harrogatetheatre.co.uk) to talk about the band, as well as an acting career which took him to EastEnders.

Beverly Knight: She is returning to the stage to promote her brand new album. This first UK tour in four years stops off at York Barbican (0844 854 2757, yorkbarbican.co.uk) for one night only. Also playing Sheffield City Hall on June 1.

NEXT WEEK IN THE magazine

Ahead of the Good Food Show, we meet the former builder turning macarons into an art form / The pop-up shop showcasing cutting edge Yorkshire designers/ Pixie Lott on starring in Breakfast at Tiffany's/ We review new Leeds restaurant Polpo/