ON FOOD FLAVOURS OF FINGAL

THE Flavours of Fingal County Show was launched this week by Thalia Heffernan, right. Fingal produces over a third of the country's fruits, vegetables and potatoes, so there's food stalls and cookery demos at the event at Newbridge House and Farm — and a showcase of Ireland's most groomed cows!
■ JUNE 27 and 28, see flavoursoffingal.com

ON THE GRASS PICNIC IN THE PARK

DON'T miss Cork Midsummer Festival's Picnic in the Park this Sunday — a delightful afternoon of arts, entertainment, music, dance and workshops. Between 12pm and 5pm, there'll be acrobatics, circus performers, as well as a special teddy bears picnic area for little ones.
■ THE festival runs until June 21, see corkmidsummer.com

ON THE DART BLOOMSDAY

ON TUESDAY Iarnród Éireann, with Caviston's Food Emporium, is running a special train from Dublin's Pearse St to Sandycove & Glashule for a special Bloomsday Breakfast — be at Pearse St Station for 8.50am, as Mattress Mick will re-enact the bed scene from Ulysess at 9am. Train departs at 9.20am.
